Instructions for maintaining the SCECA Policy and Procedures Manual

1. The official Policy and Procedures will be distributed to each board member at the beginning of the fiscal year meeting.
2. The Constitution and By-Laws Chairperson will make revisions of the Policy and Procedures Manual as required by the Board of Directors.
3. Each member of the Board of Directors shall be responsible for inserting revised pages of the SCECA Policies and Procedures Manual and removing outdated pages as directed.
4. The minutes of the current and preceding two years shall be filed in the SCECA Policies and Procedures Manual.
5. Policy and Procedures Manuals shall be returned to the Executive Director by members of the Board of Directors within 30 days of completion of service.

SCECA History

In 1950, the Columbia Preschool Board invited all preschool teachers in the state to a meeting at which Dr. Jimmy Hymes presented. Strong interest was expressed for forming a statewide group. A committee was appointed and representatives were sent to a meeting in Nashville. This meeting resulted in the formation of the Southern Association on Children Under Six. The South Carolina Association on Children Under Six was formally organized at a meeting at Winthrop College on March 29, 1952. Seventy-five charter members were present.

As you can imagine, the greatest undertaking in those early years was gathering the teachers of preschool children. A small band of faithful persons worked diligently and the organization has constantly grown ever since. The first two annual meetings were at Winthrop College, then in Spartanburg, Columbia, and Charleston. In addition to the annual meetings, there were annual workshops in connection with the State Social Work Conference. The annual conference has been held in various locations throughout the state and continues to offer high-quality interest sessions and keynote speakers.

Leadership for our organization has always been strong and deeply committed to the goals and principles of SCACUS. See Appendix II for a list of past presidents. As has been pointed out, SCACUS and SACUS were organized at the same time. The growth and development of the two organizations has been parallel, and they have mutually benefited from close affiliation. Many SCACUS members have served in leadership positions of SACUS. South Carolina always has one of the largest delegations at annual SACUS meetings. Membership in SCACUS has grown consistently over the years and the organization continued to be a forerunner in the field of early childhood education in South Carolina.

In 1992, the name of our organization was changed to the South Carolina Early Childhood Association following the name change of the Southern Early Childhood Association. Our purpose was also expanded to serve children through the age of eight and their families.

More information concerning historical information about SCECA can be obtained from the Executive Director.

Overview

The South Carolina Early Childhood Association is a non-profit, tax exempt, self-supporting organization drawing its members from the ranks of individuals who are working with or concerned with the best interests and welfare of young children in South Carolina. SCECA is affiliated with the Southern Early Childhood Association (SECA), a regional organization representing the following fourteen (14) southern states:

Alabama	Georgia	Mississippi	South Carolina	West Virginia

SCECA Mission Statement

The mission of South Carolina Early Childhood Association (SCECA) is to enhance knowledge of early care and education professionals; to advance evidence-based best practices; to provide leadership to increase public understanding; and to support policies that result in high quality early care and education for every child from birth to age eight in South Carolina.

SCECA will accomplish its mission by embracing innovation, valuing the voice of all stakeholders, and confidently providing leadership to the field of early childhood.

SECA Mission Statement

The Southern Early Childhood Association (SECA) is an organization committed to promoting quality care and education for young children and their families.

SECA is committed to providing leadership and support to individuals and groups by:

- Enhancing the quality of young children's lives through early childhood care and education;
- Supporting families in their roles of caring for their children;
- Fostering the professional growth and status of individuals working with young children and their families;
- Increasing public understanding and support for policies and programs which ensure developmentally based services to young children and their families; and
- Focusing on Southern issues concerning children and families.

Membership/Affiliation Policy

Membership in SCECA is open to persons concerned with the needs of children from birth through age eight. Membership dues are paid to the Executive Director. Membership forms are included in each edition of the SCOPE newsletter. Forms are also available from the Executive Director or on the Association website, www.sceca.org, for prospective new members.

The SCECA Board of Directors has elected to institute a rolling membership policy. The membership year will be comprised of 12 calendar months from the time of initial application for membership in the SCECA organization. The initial application date will serve as the anniversary date for the individual member and all member benefits will be accrued based upon that designated twelve month period.

Members need to know:

- Individual membership expiration date can be found on mailing labels.
- Personal address and email address should be included on membership forms.
- Applicants will be notified of membership with their membership card that identifies their membership expiration date.
- SCECA members must renew according to SCECA membership dates so there will be no break in membership privileges. SCECA will carry the member 60 days past their expiration date before dropping them from the rolls.
- SCECA and SECA expiration dates will not coincide.

SCECA and SECA Services to Members

Conferences and Workshops

SCECA and SECA annually have conferences and workshops featuring outstanding speakers in Early Childhood Education, research forums, and special interest groups designed to bring the latest innovations and current ideas to members.

- To provide consultation and guidance upon request.

Publications of SCECA and SECA

SCECA SCOPE

SCECA SCOPE is the official newsletter of SCECA. It is published at least four times each year and is mailed to the membership by the Executive Director. Each issue contains reports by state officials, reports from district presidents, feature articles of interest to the membership, conference and workshop information as well as specified articles. The Executive Director is the SCOPE editor.

Preliminary Conference Program

The Preliminary Program is mailed to the SCECA members by November 1st of the year prior to the annual January or February conference. It is produced by the Executive Director and the Meeting Planner.

Dimensions

- Dimensions is the official journal of the Southern Early Childhood Association (SECA).
- It serves the membership of SECA who are concerned with early childhood in various and dynamic ways.

- Content includes:
 1. Current information about what is happening to young children in the affiliate states and throughout the world.
 2. Relevant happenings of state and local organizations.
 3. Reports on recent research, legislative action, book reviews and workshops.
 4. Suggested activities for teachers and children.
- Dimensions is available online quarterly to members of the Southern Early Childhood Association. SCECA members are invited to submit articles and pictures for Dimensions. These contributions to the journal or materials may be submitted to the SECA editor at this address: SECA Editor, 1123 S. University Ave., Ste. 255, Little Rock, AR 72204.

SECA Reporter

SECA Reporter is published twice a year. It contains state affiliate news, notice of meetings, and other information of importance to members. SECA publishes a number of publications on topics of interest to teachers, parents, and others who work with young children and their families.

SCECA Conference

SCECA has one conference annually. The date for the conference is determined by conference location, space availability, and generally takes place in January or February each year. If SCECA hosts a regional conference for SECA, a state conference may or may not take place. The Board of Directors will determine whether to have a conference or not.

The annual conference provides an opportunity for members to hear outstanding speakers in the field of child development and early childhood education and to participate in a variety of interest sessions and workshops. Special interest seminars, tours, or events may be offered also.

The annual conference is open to SCECA members and non-members. Members pay a reduced registration fee. Registration information is mailed to all current members and is available upon request to other interested persons. Information about the conference is also on the website, www.sceca.org.

The annual business meeting is held during the annual conference. Election of SCECA officers is held at this meeting. Resolutions are approved by the membership and the annual Service Award is presented during this meeting. All official business that needs membership approval occurs at this time.

The SCECA Conference Manual outlines official policies, procedures, and responsibilities for annual conferences and is provided to the Conference Chairperson.

SECA Representative Attendance at SCECA Annual Conference

The SECA Board has authorized the SECA President or a designated representative from the Executive Board to attend the annual conference of each state association. Such visits help the membership to become better informed about the organization, to become acquainted with its officers, and to learn about activities in other states in the region. They also help the SECA Board know and understand the unique aspects of each state group.

The SECA President or designee will talk formally with members and state officers and will be available to:

1. Meet with the SCECA Board.
2. Bring greetings from SECA at a general session to the membership during the annual conference.
3. The SECA President or designee will not accept an honorarium should they make a presentation in the program.
4. SECA will assume the travel expenses of this visit. SCECA will provide complimentary accommodations, luncheon ticket, Board of Directors' dinner and local transportation for the SECA Representative.

A specific invitation to the SECA President to participate in the state conference should be issued by the SCECA President before the Fall Board of Directors' meeting. A request for participation should indicate specific expectations and duties of the SECA President. The SECA Representative should be involved in the process.

District Activities

The districts assume the responsibility for planning workshops and/or mini-conferences and meetings, which meet the needs of members within their region.

The SCECA Board has authorized the SCECA President or an appointed alternate to attend district functions upon request and availability. SCECA will assume the travel expenses of this visit. The district will provide a complimentary registration.

A specific invitation to the SCECA President to participate in the district conference or event should be issued by the District President well in advance of the meeting/workshop. The request for participation should indicate specific expectations for the President.

SECA Conference

SECA holds its annual conference in the winter. The conference site moves from state to state, making access easier for different associations each year. This conference also offers opportunities to hear well-known and outstanding speakers, to participate in workshops, to attend interest group sessions and special interest seminars. Special interest seminars may be offered prior to or after the close of the conference.

Board Meeting Policies and Procedures

1. Board members expenses for board meetings, including mileage and lodging will be paid for by SCECA. If a member lives within the 30 mile radius of the meeting place, SCECA will pay for mileage not to exceed one half the room rate or provide one half of the room rate.
2. Board members are to share hotel rooms during board meetings as appropriate. If a member wishes to have a private room, when sharing would otherwise be required, the board member will pay one-half of the expenses for the hotel room.

SCECA Social Media Guidelines

A. GENERAL GUIDELINES

Sharing early childhood news, events, promoting district work through social media is an excellent, low-cost way to engage the community and build our association. Members are encouraged to repost and share information with co-workers and friends that is available to the public.

B. GUIDELINE KEY POINTS

- Be Knowledgeable
- Be Aware
- Avoid Inappropriate Comments
- Remain Positive

- Be Helpful and Add Value
- Be Transparent

C. SEEK APPROVAL

Any post on any social media MUST be approved by the Executive Director.

D. MAINTAIN CONFIDENTIALITY

Do not post confidential or proprietary information about the association, its members, or any organization associated with the association. Use good ethical judgment and stay in accordance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPPA) of 1996.

E. MAINTAIN PRIVACY

Do not discuss a situation involving named or pictured individuals or groups on a social media site without their permission. As a guideline, do not post anything that you would not present in any public forum. Be careful and be respectful. What you say directly reflects on the Association. Discuss with the Executive Director the circumstances in which you are empowered to respond directly to users and when you may need approval.

F. DO NO HARM

Let your Internet social networking do no harm to the association!

G. MAINTAIN TRANSPARENCY

The line between professional and personal business is sometimes blurred: Be thoughtful about your posting's content and potential audiences. Be honest.

H. CORRECT MISTAKES

If you make a mistake, admit it. Be upfront and be quick with your correction.

I. THINK BEFORE YOU POST

There is no such thing as a "private" social media site. Search engines can turn up post and pictures years after the publication date. Comment can be forwarded or copied. Archival systems save information even if you delete a post. If you feel angry or passionate about a subject, it is wise to delay posting until you are calm and clearheaded.

J. RESPECT YOUR AUDIENCE

Do not use ethnic slurs, personal insults, obscenity, or engage in any conduct that would not be acceptable in the Early Childhood Community. You should also show proper consideration for other's privacy and for topics that may be considered sensitive – such as politics and religion.

K. BE ACCURATE

Make sure that you have all the facts before you post. It is better to verify information with a source first than to have to post a correction or retraction later. Cite and link to your sources whenever possible.

L. BE TIMELY

Regularly monitor postings and content. Aim for standard times for postings and updates. The recommended minimum frequency is two to three times a week. Be sure not to overload your updates. Followers will stop paying attention if you overload them with information.

M. DISTRICT SOCIAL MEDIA

District Presidents will report to the Executive Director to edit and she will send to the Publicist or the Members-at-Large to have items posted on social media. Districts will not have their own personal social media accounts.

SCECA Resolution Guidelines

Goal:

The purpose of a resolution is for the South Carolina Early Childhood Association to propose a plan of action or to declare a position on an issue.

Objectives:

1. To encourage and facilitate discussion and debate on matters related to the concerns and business of SCECA.
2. To facilitate an awareness of SCECA concerns related to young children.
3. To formalize statements of position concerning issues related to children.

Procedures:

1. Robert's Rules of Order, Revised shall be the parliamentary authority governing the presentation of resolutions.

 - g. Resolutions shall be approved by a simple majority of the members present and voting and the business meeting.
 - h. Issues of concern (not resolutions) may be introduced from the floor at the SCECA annual business meeting following consideration of all resolutions.

SECA Resolutions

SECA provides an opportunity for the membership to take action on concerns and issues through resolutions presented and acted upon at the business meeting held during the annual conference.

Proposed resolutions should be sent to the SECA office of Resolutions Chairperson two months prior to the conference. These are studied for content and wording and avoiding of duplication. The Resolutions Committee sees that resolutions are available in written form for study by members before voting. Resolutions are presented at the meeting with the Resolutions Committee's recommendation.

Resolutions may not be brought to the membership without previous consideration by the Resolutions Committee and the Board of Directors.

KEVIN SWICK FAMILY & SCHOOL-COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP AWARD

Summary:

This award is established to support early childhood programs in their local work to engage in partnerships with their families and the schools-communities that they serve.

Who was Dr. Kevin Swick?

Kevin J. Swick was a Professor of Early Childhood Education in the Department of Instruction and Teacher Education at the University of South Carolina - Columbia. Dr. Swick was a true pioneer in the early childhood field, leading the field in examining our relationships with families from all walks of life. He worked extensively in researching family/school-community partnerships, supporting diverse families and service learning. Dr. Swick published over 100 journal articles and wrote over 25 books. He was active in early childhood professional groups, presided as President of the South Carolina Early Childhood Association from 1981-1982, as President of the Southern Early Childhood Association from 1985-1986, and worked with parent and family programs throughout the United States. He received his Ph.D. in 1970 from the University of Connecticut.

Purpose of the Grant:

To honor the memory of Dr. Kevin Swick and his lifelong work in the field of family/school-community partnerships. Dr. Swick spent his career helping educators design and support family engagement programs at the local level. This award would recognize early childhood programs which demonstrate exemplary family and community partnerships. The award funds can be used to support ongoing or innovative practices in this area.

Eligibility Criteria:

Any early care and education program/practitioner that demonstrates exemplary work with families and communities of young children is eligible to apply.

The program/practitioner must meet the following criteria:

- Program/practitioner serving children/families from birth – 8 years old
- Legally operating
- Demonstrate family engagement strategies
- Demonstrate community partnerships

The Awards Committee will select the recipient of the award based on a rubric. The deadline for applying will be October 25. The award will consist of a check in the amount of $250 and a framed certificate.

SCECA Student Group Start up Grant

Purpose of the Grant:

The SCECA Student Group Start Up Grant is open to Early Childhood Advisors who want to establish a professional membership group affiliated with the South Carolina Early Childhood Association on their high school or two/four year college/university campus. SCECA's Student Group Chairperson will assist the Student Advisor with the steps to establish a new group and supply a SCECA Student Group Constitution.

Eligibility:

- The high school or college affiliate who will be the Student Group Advisor must be a current member of SCECA and teach at a high school or college/university in SC.
- The grant is for a new student group organization. If a group had a SCECA affiliated student group and it has been inactive for a period of at least three years, the Student Group Advisor may apply for the grant to activate the student group again.
- The Student Advisor submits the grant application.
- The Student Advisor further agrees to write an article for the SCOPE newsletter about how the grant was helpful in starting the student group from your school to encourage other high school or colleges/universities to consider starting a student group.

Criteria:

This grant in the amount of $250.00 can be used to facilitate the organization of a student group on a high school or college/university campus in SC. The grant money may be used as follows:

- Up to $100 can be used to pay for the officers' membership in SCECA.
- The balance of the grant money may be used to for programs, speakers or to send officers to the SCECA Conference.

The following information must be submitted along with this application:

- Completed application form by the Student Advisor
- Description of proposal (no more than one page stating the goals and/or plans for the establishment of an active Student Group)

Deadline:

The deadline for applying will be October 25. The grant will be a check to the Student Group in the amount of $250.

Applications must be received no later than Oct. 25th for the January Awards.

SCECA Early Childhood Grant

In 2014, SCECA combined the Center Materials Grants and Teacher Grants into new SCECA Early Childhood Grants. In 2018, the Executive Board approved funding for SIX $1000 grants. These grants will be awarded at the SCECA Conference.

Deadline is October 25th. All applications must be received by Becky Wardlaw, SCECA Executive Director, 1133 Camellia Drive N., Surfside Beach, SC 29575. All applications that are received after October 25th will not be considered.

Who is eligible? All members of SCECA are eligible to apply for the Early Childhood Grant. A person can apply individually or collectively for a center or classroom. Where you work or what your job is will not affect who can apply. All applicants will be considered equally.

No member of the SCECA Board of Directors is eligible to apply for the Early Childhood Grant.

Application Process:

The application will consist of three parts:

1. The information page: This page will be the only one with your personal information on it. The Awards Committee will not include it when the applications are sent for the blind reading.
 - A. If applying individually please include your personal home address, phone number and email address so that the committee chairperson can notify you after the grant winners are decided.
 - B. If applying on behalf of your center or classroom, please include the center or school address. Your immediate supervisor (director or principal) must have knowledge of the application and sign on the line provided.
2. The order page: This is the section where you do the research and give us your order. You must list what you plan to order if you are chosen for the grant, the company to order from and the expected cost of your order. Please be sure to include 7 % tax and shipping. There is no restriction in what can be ordered as part of the grant. The only limitation is the amount cannot exceed $1000. If your order exceeds the $1000 limit, you will be responsible for the overage amount and the difference must be paid before the order is completed.
3. The narrative page: This is your chance to let the readers understand why you are applying, what you are applying for and how you plan to use what you order. This section should not exceed one page typed.

Please send one copy of the personal information page, one copy of the order page(s) and three copies of the narrative. Mail to Becky Wardlaw, 1133 Camellia Drive N., Surfside Beach, SC 29575. Must be received by October 25th.

All applicants will be notified by December 1st either by phone call or email of the results. Six applicants will be awarded $1000 grants. You must attend the annual conference and be recognized during the annual conference. Becky Wardlaw will conduct a 1 hour session on Saturday to finalize the ordering process prior to placing the orders. SCECA hopes that the orders will be delivered within a few weeks of the close of the conference.

Any questions can be directed to Becky Wardlaw, SCECA Executive Director at ed4sceca@gmail.com or by calling 803-960-0323.
